COMING EVENTS

Good Ideas For Helping Aging Parents

Wednesday, Feb. 15 - 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.

WNCC Carson City - Marlette Hall, Cedar Building

Admission: FREE

Complex issues and difficult decisions can arise when parents get to that stage in life where they have trouble taking care of themselves. This seminar will offer help in ways to cope with aging, grief and loss; aging services available in the community; and more.

Students: Learn How To Write Better Research Papers

Saturday, Feb. 18 - 10 a.m.-Noon

WNCC Fallon – Academic Skills Center

Admission: FREE

Students needing help with research papers are encouraged to attend. A videotape of a previous workshop is available at the WNCC Library, reserved under the name Josh Fleming, for those who can't attend.

RESULTS

Wildcats Shut Out National Champ, Go 2-2

The Wildcats (6-6) pulled off another upset, this time over 2002 College World Series Champion Central Arizona, 8-0, on Friday. On Saturday, Western lost to South Mountain of Arizona 13-4 and Cypress Community College 8-1. WNCC came back strong on Sunday with an 11-4 victory over El Paso Community College.

Western finished non-league play with a .500 record and four wins over nationally ranked opponents. The Wildcats open league play against in-state rival Community College of Southern Nevada.

"Oh, How They Lived"

Producer and storyteller Byron Motley narrates one of his wonderful tales about the Negro Baseball Leagues on Friday at WNCC Carson City in the third lecture of the college's "Faces, Voices and Stories" free cultural series.
